

Burgh House Hire | Music Room Concerts

Burgh House is a Grade I listed Queen Anne house in the heart of Hampstead. The panelled Music Room, equipped with Blüthner baby grand piano, is a beautiful setting for classical concerts.

To book please contact the General or Assistant Manager (0207 431 0144) who will be happy to show you round.

Hire Fees

The Music Room is available for booking weekday and Sunday afternoons and evenings. Hire also includes the Library (green room) and use of the piano.

Classical

Day Concert (3 hours between 12 noon and 5pm) £155

Evening Concert (3 hours between 7 and 10pm) £180

Light, Popular or Jazz

Day Concert (3 hours between 12 noon and 5pm) £175

Evening Concert (3 hours between 7 and 10pm) £205

Prices reflect the differing Performing Rights Society charges for different types of music.

Rehearsals

Rehearsals may be accommodated by prior arrangement free of charge during house opening hours. Rehearsal time before an evening concert after 5pm is charged at £15 for every half hour.

Capacity

The Music Room seats a maximum of 60.

Publicity

Concerts will be featured in our quarterly What's on Guide (subject to meeting the copy deadline), website and monthly eNewsletter. You will be asked to provide 10-15 words about your concert including ticket prices and a number for advance bookings. Musicians may also supply four A4 portrait posters for display on the notice boards inside and outside the House. A5 handbills may also be left in the entrance hall.

Tickets Sales

Burgh House does not take any commission on ticket sales. Sales are administered by the promoter. On the day of the concert a table will be provided for the promoters own stewards to sell tickets.
